

THE THORACIC SURGERY FOUNDATION FOR RESEARCH AND EDUCATION

An executive course, "Coping with the Health Care Revolution," was offered in May at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government. Initiated by The Foundation through a generous gift from Mr. David Sheridan, the course was extremely well received, fully subscribed, and represents the first step in the development of our educational program. The following individuals were awarded Alley-Sheridan Scholarships to attend the course:

E. Pendleton Alexander, MD
Washington, D.C./
VA Medical Center

Richard P. Embrey, MD
Medical College of Virginia Hospitals

Timothy J. Gardner, MD
Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania

Keith S. Naunheim, MD
St. Louis University School of Medicine

Anthony Louis Picone, MD
SUNY Health Science Center

Keith Eric Sommers, MD
University of Pittsburgh

Clifford H. Van Meter, MD
Ochsner Medical Institutions

A second course is planned for early December. The Foundation extends its heartfelt appreciation to members of the Education Committee whose committed and diligent work enabled this course to succeed:

Chairman

Jack M. Matloff, MD

Members

Stanley W. Dziuban, Jr., MD
Sidney Levitsky, MD
John E. Mayer, Jr., MD
Robert L. Replogle, MD
Harold C. Urschel, MD

J Thorac Cardiovasc Surg 1996;112:563.

Copyright © 1996 by Mosby-Year Book, Inc.

0022-5223/96 $5.00 + 0 12/8/74820